

About us

The oldest and well-known chocolate Polish brand offering high-quality chocolate tablets, pralines, marshmallows covered by chocolate, countines and candies. The producer uses best quality ingredients – like cocoa beans from Ghana, which are famous for their rich, bitter but at the same time well balanced taste. Carefully selected ingredients and more than 170 years of experience in developing the best chocolate recipes make E.Wedel tablets so unique and loved by consumers.

History

It all began in 1851 when Karol Wedel, a young confectioner from Berlin, arrived in Warsaw and opened his first confectionery on Miodowa Street. He sold little-known specialties at the time, but quickly won the hearts of the people of Warsaw. One of the main items on the menu was drinking chocolate.

The company experienced its greatest growth during the interwar period. In 1930, a chocolate factory was opened in the Praga district of Warsaw, and the product range was expanded to include new items such as Ptasie Mleczko®. The first stores outside of Warsaw were opened in cities like Krakow, Lodz, and Poznan. Over time, the company's products became available in Europe, the United States, and Japan. By the late 1930s, E.Wedel had become a widely recognized brand with a diverse and appealing product offering.

The company's development was interrupted by World War II. After its conclusion, production resumed, but by the end of 1945, the new communist regime removed Jan Wedel from the factory. In 1949, the brand was nationalized, and the name was changed. The name E.Wedel was only reinstated in 1989 when the privatization process began. Currently, the brand is owned by the Japanese conglomerate Lotte.

Certificates

High quality is part of our philosophy. The production processes are strictly controlled and certified. The highest quality of Wedel products has its origins from the very existence of the E.Wedel brand. Jan Wedel - the grandson of the company's founder, was very restrictive in the area of hygiene in the factory, but also personally supervised each transport of cocoa beans. He examined the samples, assessed their ripeness and quality, and decided which type of chocolate to use for a given grain. Invariably, the E.Wedel brand for the production of its chocolate sweets uses only the highest quality cocoa beans from Ghana, still using traditional technology, which guarantees a unique taste.

The guarantee of the best quality is due to the entire supply chain and all stages of production. It is confirmed by certificates and is a priority for us. Controls at every stage of production and restrictions in the area of hygiene are necessary to maintain the highest level of food safety.

DARK CHOCOLATE

Carefully selected, high-quality cocoa from Ghana and closely guarded recipes give each piece of Wedel chocolate a unique taste pleasure.

Did you know?

For chocolate to delight with its extraordinary taste and melt in the mouth, it must be created based on a properly refined recipe. Wedel chocolate is made from cocoa beans from Ghana, which gives each bar a unique, deep flavor.

PREMIUM CHOCOLATE

Premium dark chocolate with a high cocoa content from Ghana is a proposition for those looking for a dry, strong chocolate taste. The perfect combination of the intense taste of dark chocolate, combined with sour currant, caramel or orange peel is an ideal proposition for lovers of original combinations. Thanks to the form of a thin bar, Wedel's dark chocolate provides unique taste sensations, pleasantly breaking in the mouth.

Did you know?

Americans are known for their love of sweets, especially chocolate. Therefore, it is not surprising that they eat as much as 50% of the world's chocolate production. Europeans are right behind them - enjoying 40%, and the remaining 10% goes to residents of other continents.
